After careful consideration, the DRRI search committee voted to award the Champion of Inclusion Award to John and Connie Susa, trailblazers for people with disabilities.

Parents of three sons given disability labels in childhood, John and Connie Susa are family leaders who have helped over four decades to increase the extent to which Rhode Islanders with disabilities are included in the mainstream. They were among the founders of the RI Parent Information Network. John and Connie have also used the due process system of IDEA to ensure their son Mark benefited from a fully inclusive education. Together with others, the couple are founding members of Personal Lifetime Advocacy Networks of Rhode Island. They have, individually and together, made landmark contributions through work at the RI Department of Education, the RI Developmental Disabilities Council, The Paul V. Sherlock Center on Disabilities at Rhode Island College, and the Rhode Island Arc.

Please join DRRI as they honor John and Connie, and celebrate our whole community, on Thursday, October 26th! For more information, visit An Evening of Inclusion.

October is National Disability Employment Awareness Month!

Observed each October, National Disability Employment Awareness Month (NDEAM) celebrates the contributions of America's workers with disabilities past and present and showcases supportive, inclusive employment policies and practices that benefit employers and employees. ODEP has chosen "Advancing Access and Equity" as its theme for NDEAM 2023.

BHDDH and ORS collaborated to request nominations from the Supported Employment Provider Network to recognize outstanding employers. Three businesses in Rhode Island were selected to receive awards. Representatives from BHDDH and ORS will be visiting recognized business and presenting these awards next week (October 24th through the 26th). Employees will also be celebrated for their contributions and success. We look forward to sharing stories and photos from our visits in the next issue of BHDDH DD News.
